

Ulrike Dufner, Director, Turkey Office, Heinrich Böll Foundation

Ulrike Dufner has been Director of the Turkey Representation of the Heinrich Böll Foundation since 2004 and is an expert on foreign policy and international relations, conflict resolution and management regarding Turkey and the Near and Middle East. Dufner previously served for two years in the Foreign Office of the Federal Republic of Germany at the Turkey and South-Caucasus desks.

During the years 1996-2002, she was an advisor in the parliamentary office of the former Minister of State in the Foreign Office, Dr. Ludger Volmer and Ms. Amke Dietert-Scheuer. She has also conducted research in Egypt and Turkey and holds a doctorate in political science, Turkology and modern history.