

Telebriefing:

FUNDING IN INDIA: EFFECTIVE STRATEGIES FOR ADDRESSING POLICY RESTRICTIONS

June 13, 2012

Organized by the IHRFG Asia and Pacific Funders Working Group

Speakers:

- Tejas Merh, Consultant
- Syma Mirza, Program Officer, Fund for Global Human Rights
- Javid Syed, Senior Program Officer, Asia, American Jewish World Service

Description:

In early 2011, India passed a new Foreign Contribution Regulation Act, which heightens scrutiny and tightens rules applicable to foreign donors.

What are some of the challenges that international human rights donors can expect in light of this new climate in India, and what are some mitigating strategies to ensure that local human rights organizations continue to be supported?
