

Mariela Puga is the Executive Director of the Fondo de Mujeres del Sur, a foundation that support women's movements in Argentina, Paraguay and Uruguay. She was former director of Tucuman Public Interest Law Clinic (2004-2007), Coordinator of the Cordoba Public Interest Law Clinic Association, and Coordinator of Palermo Public Interest Law Clinic (1998-2002), and also served as a consultant for Ford Foundation (2007, 2008), the Federal State Congress of Argentina (2006-2008), Buenos Aires Municipal Government, Justice Department (2000-01), Formosa State Government, Justice Department, Cordoba City Government, Environmental Secretary (2010), and Public Interest Law Initiative, Legal Education Reform (2009-10).

She graduated from Cordoba National University School of Law in 1996, and holds two Masters Degrees in public law, one from Columbia University School of Law (New York, 2005), and the other from Palermo University, Postgraduate Centre (Buenos Aires, 2000).