Prospects for Human Rights In The Obama Administration

Monday, January 26, 2009, 7:00 – 9:00 pm

Speakers:

Christopher Edley, Jr., The Honorable Willian H. Orrick, Jr. – Distinguished Chair and Dean, University of California – Berkeley Law

Facilitator:

Rebecca Rittgers, Programme Executive (Reconciliation & Human Rights), The Atlantic Philanthropies

What's ahead for human rights, both at home and abroad, with the new Obama administration? How might grantmakers provide the most strategic support in the human rights arena in this new political landscape? Christopher Edley, Jr., Dean of UC-Berkeley Law and former legal mentor and advisor to President-elect Obama, led this insightful discussion.
