

Telebriefing:

A CONVERSATION WITH MARY ROBINSON: CLIMATE CHANGE AND CLIMATE JUSTICE

April 30, 2012

Sponsored by IHRFG's Human Rights and Environment Working Group

Speakers:

- Mary Robinson, President, Mary Robinson Foundation – Climate Justice

Description:

Twenty years after the first Earth Summit in Rio, the UN is again bringing together governments, NGOs, the private sector, and other major groups to discuss measures to “reduce poverty, advance social equity and ensure environmental protection on an ever more crowded planet to get to the future we want.”

In advance of the Rio+20 Conference in June 2012, the Honorable Mary Robinson shared her views on current and innovative efforts to respond to climate change, with a focus on:

- The role of women in climate justice efforts
- The role of the international rights framework in responding to climate change and promoting climate justice more broadly
- Key priority considerations and strategies for funders currently working and planning to work in these areas
