

First Name	Last Name	Position	Organization	E-mail Address	Phone	Country Focus	Issue Focus	Strategies Funded	Type of Support	Areas Interested in Collaborating with Peer Funders
Panjit	Kaewsawang	Women's Rights Programme Officer	ActionAid Thailand	Panjit.Kaewsawang@actionaid.org						I would be appreciate sharing the information of Thailand ActionAid Women's Rights works and plans, especially funding sources and support from my stand point that it is disengaged from the Country Strategic Plan.
Martje	Vooijs	Programme Manager	Adessium Foundation	mhv@adessium.org	31-182-308-450	Global	Informed society, justice and security, natural resources	Multiple	Core, project and program support
Billie	Goodman	Program Officer	American Jewish World Service	bgoodman@ajws.org	212-792-2852	Sri Lanka, Burma, Afghanistan	Civil and political rights and community resilience in crisis, natural resource rights, LGBTI rights	Small grants to grassroots organizations, some grants to strategic allies working on advocacy or coalition building at a national level.	General support, capacity building, emergency grants, opportunity grants to allow partners to take advantage of time sensitive opportunities.	Interested in collaborating with peer funders that are working in the same countries. Also interested in collaborating with funders that are supporting partners to engage with international human rights mechanisms.
Dorcus	Moo	Program Officer	American Jewish World Service	dmoo@ajws.org	212-792-2860	Cambodia, Thailand, Burma	Refugees, human rights and women's rights	Community empowerment/mobilization, advocacy	Human resources or volunteers
Navin	Moul	Program Officer	American Jewish World Service	nmoul@ajws.org	212-792-2804	Cambodia, Thailand	Land/natural resource rights, civic engagement of youth. Working to develop a strategy around sexual health and rights in Thailand.	Community empowerment (community education, mobilization, and legal aid) and advocacy (including documentation and media support).	Generally core support; occasionally project support. Also provide capacity building and opportunity grants as one-off grants (ex: support for training, providing funds for a strategic plan, funding events)	Would love collaborate with other funders working in SE Asia, specifically Thailand and Cambodia. It would be especially beneficial if they were working on similar priorities.
Jenna	Capeci	Program Officer	American Jewish World Service	jcapeci@ajws.org		Burma	Civil and Political Rights in conflict and post-conflict settings- this includes ensuring that minority communities have access to justice, organizing, and democratic processes. We pay particular attention to ensuring that voices of those that are traditionally marginalized are strengthened in this process. Sexual Health and Rights- this includes support for feminist, LGBTI, and sex worker organizations, and Natural Resource Rights- this includes organizing and other strategies through which communities can ensure control over their natural resources and reduce the human rights violations of people whose resources are being targeted by either the state or corporations.	Human rights documentation and education, community organizing, youth and women's empowerment and rights, local and national advocacy and government dialogue, peacebuilding and transitional justice	General operating and Grantee Opportunity Funds (which includes travel and capacity building)	I appreciate the opportunity to do country focused strategizing. Am also interested in cross-cutting themes like how to approach working in repressive/conflict areas, how to support human rights defenders, strategic litigation, funding and doing political advocacy informed by our grantees, philanthropic advocacy focused on other donors, mainstream devt and funding agencies.
Javid	Syed	Senior Program Officer	American Jewish World Service	jsyed@ajws.org		India	Sexual Health and Rights- this includes support for feminist orgs based in Muslim, dalit and adivasi communities, LGBTI, and sex worker organizations, and Natural Resource Rights and Economic Justice- this includes organizing and other strategies through which communities can ensure control over their natural resources and reduce the human rights violations of people whose resources are being targeted by either the state or corporations. Currently our NRR portfolio focuses on economic justice issues related to land and displacement due to development for urban poor communities and rural communities displacement due to land grabbing by corporations or government in the name of development.	Most of our funds are channeled to grassroots organizations. We firmly believe that those most impacted by an issue have a central role to play in devising solutions and that women have a critical role in this process. The strategies we focus on are: Civil and Political Rights, Sexual Health and Rights, and Natural Resource Rights	General operating and Grantee Opportunity Funds (which includes travel and capacity building)	Sharing strategies to improve our grant making, sharing information about our grantees to make sure that together we have a synergistic impact at country level, doing what we can to have a progressive orientation towards HR grant making that prioritizes progressive voices from the grassroots communities and isn't motivated by morality-driven and ideologically dogmatic ways of funding.
Mai	Kiang	Director of Programs	Astraea Lesbian Foundation for Justice	mkiang@astraeafoundation.org
Namita	Chad	Grants Administrator and Program Officer	Astraea Lesbian Foundation for Justice	nchad@astraeafoundation.org		Organizations based throughout Asia and the Pacific (with the exception of Australia and New Zealand) are eligible to apply for funding from Astraea's International Fund. We currently have grantee partnerships in China (including Hong Kong), India, Indonesia, Japan, Laos, Mongolia, Nepal, Pakistan, Philippines, Singapore, Sri Lanka, Taiwan, and Thailand	LGRTQ Human Rights and their intersection with Economic Justice, Racial Justice/Migrant Rights, Women's Rights, Family Rights, Health, Freedom of Expression & Assembly, Safety, Criminalization and Militarism.	Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity-based Anti-discrimination Protections, Women's Rights, Civil & Political Rights, Economic Social & Cultural Rights. Grantee partners use a myriad of social change strategies, including advocacy for institutional and policy change, arts/cultural production/advocacy and public education, community organizing (collectivization) and direct action, leadership development, and movement- and network-building.	Grants for general support, project support, institutional and policy change campaigns, travel, technical assistance and emergency responses to unanticipated political opportunities (including safety/security grants)	Peer support, information-sharing calls, report back from travel to region & meetings with grantee partners, philanthropic advocacy to expand funding to LGRTQ human rights work, identification of prospective grantees and opportunities for co-funding, opportunities for progressive alliances-building, potential shared convenings or technical assistance support to grantee partners.
Katrin	Wilde	Executive Director	Channel Foundation	kwilde@channelfoundation.org	206-621-5447	Global	Women's human rights (Ensuring women's participation in conflict resolution and peacebuilding, securing reproductive rights/justice, Women's leadership and Human Rights initiatives, etc.)	Advocacy	1 year grants	Interested in knowing more about funding in Burma, what people are funding in Nepal, Mongolia, Sri Lanka, etc.
Santosh	Samal	Executive Director	Dalit Foundation	santosh412001@yahoo.com		India.	Supporting leaders from the Dalit and other marginalized communities in South Asia	Dalit Foundation follows a rights based approach and aims to ensure equality and equal rights for all. In this capacity DF supports strategies for civil rights, women rights, protect rights over natural resources, access to rights and livelihood, public understanding and advocacy.	Dalit Foundation supports grassroots level Dalit initiatives to build a strong line of Dalit leaders. We provide support through grant making, capacity building and training (perspective building and skill development), peer learning and exposure visits, support for promotion of Dalit Art and culture.	To gain exposure, learn and share new strategies for effective implementation and impact assessment.
Julian	Liu	Program Officer	Empower	jliu@empowerweb.org	212-608-4455	China, India, Vietnam, Philippines	Youth, livelihoods, health, leadership, education	Social service	Project grants, some multi-year. Some sustainability grants
Hoa	Duong-Piyaka	Program Officer	Fund for Global Human Rights	hdpiyaka@globalhumanrights.org		South and Southeast Asia, specifically Pakistan, India, Thailand, and the Philippines.	Gender and resource rights; freedom of expression; media freedom; challenging impunity/torture; indigenous communities' rights (ties in with land/resource rights) women's rights (including reproductive and sexual rights), labor rights and rights of migrant workers, environmental rights, and LGRTQ rights.	In addition to monetary support, the Fund also helps connect its grantees cross-regionally to share best practices and to network.		We would like to be able to converse with peer funders re discussing best practices and specific country-level issues, especially concerning how others have been funding in difficult to fund areas i.e. places where government oppression is strong and grantees face insecurity. We would also be happy to share our experiences with
Jennifer	Lofing	Vice President of Programs	Give2Asia	jlofing@give2asia.org	415-743-3394	20+ countries across the Asia Pacific region	We are a donor advised grantmaker, so we support a broad range of issues that interest our donors. Top issues include education, health, social services, arts & culture, economic development.	Most of our support goes to locally-based and registered organizations in Asia. Program approaches vary according to the interest of the donors and grantees.	Both core operating support and project specific support.
Dien	Yuen	Director of Philanthropy	Give2Asia	dyuen@give2asia.org		Afghanistan, Australia, Bangladesh, Cambodia, China, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Japan, Korea, Laos, Malaysia, Mongolia, Nepal, New Zealand,	We fund a wide variety of issues and projects, including education, health, disaster, livelihood, social services, environment, women & girls, civil society, arts & culture	We fund projects that may address the above issues through numerous ways, from vocational training to community engagement.	We offer donors the ability to give to organizations in Asia that do not have a 501(c3) designation. Our work is donor-advised and we adhere to the expenditure responsibility grantmaking process. We do not have unrestricted funds.	Learning opportunities, including organizations that they are funding so we may recommend them to our donors when appropriate.

Shalini	Nataraj	Director of Advocacy and Partnerships	Global Fund for Women	snataraj@globalfundforwomen.org		The GFW Asia & Oceania Portfolio is comprised of grantees in the Pacific Islands, South Asia, East Asia, and Southeast Asia. In the past five years, the largest number of our grants have gone to groups in	Political participation/representation of women, violence against women and girls, LGBTQ advocacy and community-building, girls' education, militarization and its effects, HIV/AIDS, sustainable livelihoods, women workers' rights, displacement, marginalized groups, trafficking, and traditional practices and beliefs that violate the rights of women and girls.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Building peace and ending gender-based violence Advancing health and sexual & reproductive rights Expanding civic & political participation Ensuring economic & environmental justice Increasing access to education Fostering social change philanthropy 	We offer general operating support to women-led groups, particularly groups in their first few years or those that actively include the perspectives of women served by or benefitting from the group's activities.	We are interested in learning more about what other funders are doing to see where there is overlap and where there are gaps in funding.
Baohua	Yan	Program Coordinator	Global Greengrants Fund	Baohua@greengrants.org	303-939-9866	Asia	Biodiversity conservation, climate justice, energy, food & agriculture, indigenous rights, mining, oil & gas, water, and women's voices.	multiple; small grants to grassroots organizations; mostly strategies formulated jointly by the group and the advisor.	multiple, including general support for organizational development, capacity building, projects, etc.	We'd love to share experience and lessons learned in grantmaking in the above mentioned issue areas with colleagues working in this region, and explore opportunities to collaborate. We are also interested in collaborating with peer funders to promote the philanthropy development in the region philanthropy development in the region .
Nikhil	Aziz	Executive Director	Grassroots International	nikhilaziz@grassrootsonline.org		In Asia, we have funded or are funding in India, Pakistan, Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines, and Thailand.	We fund from a frame of resource rights which includes not only natural resource rights but economic, social, and cultural rights, civil and political rights, women's rights, we also fund capacity building, research, learning exchanges, advocacy, etc.	Our grantmaking strategy is an integrated one that funds deep and thick. I.e. we might fund the same organization at multiple levels for work done locally/nationally, regionally, and internationally. We also fund a range of organizations working at multiple levels of the same issue.	General support as well as project support largely depending on what the partners or grantees needs are. Usually, if we have restricted funding available then that tends to be more for project support.	We have an active cofunding project in west africa with a number of peers. We are currently engaged in a learning process on both Asia and Africa, including talking with a number of peers (for Asia) such as AJWS, UU Holdeen Indis, IDEX, etc.
Linda	To	Executive Director	HER Fund	linda.to@herfund.org.hk	(852) 2794-1100	Hong Kong	Women's rights, neglected/less-funded women's groups	fundraising, grant-making and philanthropic education	right-based grassroots women's self-help organizations, empowerment and advocacy work of marginalized women and young women.
Judy	Kan	Program Officer	HER Fund	info@herfund.org.hk		Hong Kong	Young women/girls' empowerment groups/ programs, marginalized women's groups such as new immigrant women, asylum seekers, migrant domestic workers, sex workers, and low income women workers.	Capacity building for right-based grassroots' self-organizing women groups/organizations; Young women's empowerment projects, and priority will be given to young women-led or capacity building lead to young women-led projects; Projects that address new emerging gender phenomenon.	We provide 1) organizational development/ training opportunities to our grantees; 2) bridging grantees with voluntary professionals, corporate and local foundations for resources such as professional consultancy, in-kind donations and foundations' grants; 3) building network amongst grantees, facilitating them to have mutual	HER Fund is part of an international platform called "Community of Practice" by FCAM and Mama Cash. On this platform, women's fund will try to mobilize and educate donors to support girls and young women's rights' work. We are also in contact with groups like EMPOWER, Mongolian Women's Fund, and Global Fund for Children.
Tunggal	Pawestri		HIVOS Indonesia	t.pawestri@hivos.or.id		Indonesia, Timor Leste, Malaysia and the Philippines	SRHR, LGBT rights, good governance, and HIV/AIDS. Additionally, we also work on impunity, pluralism, women's leadership, and violence against women	policy advocacy, community system strengthening/organizing, public campaigns.	long term partnership (up to 10 years), medium term funding (2-3 years), and short term funding for pilot projects/emergency responses (less than a year).	We are open to all possibilities.
Kasia	Pilat	Programme Officer	Human Dignity Foundation	Kasia.Pilat@human-dignity-foundation.org		South Asia: India and Afghanistan and Africa: South Africa, Malawi, Sierra Leone, Liberia, Ghana, Uganda	Improved Access to Quality Education, Reduction in Early Marriage, Increased and More Stable Family Income, Reduction in Violence Against Women and Children. Our main focus group are children and women, with 3/4 of our resources going towards supporting children.	Children's and Women's Rights	We are a private foundation and we offer financial support to our grantees. However, we are an active grantmaker and invest particular energy in the planning and evaluation stages of the grantmaking cycle.	We are interested in exchanging information/knowledge with other funders working on similar issues. We would also be interested in co-funding opportunities.
Catherine	Chen	Director of Investments	Humanity United	cchen@humanityunited.org
Yeshica	Weerasekera	Program Officer	International Development Exchange	yeshica@idex.org		Guatemala, Mexico, South Africa, Zimbabwe, India and Nepal	Small to mid-sized organizations that work in at least two out of three of our focus areas: Women's Rights, Economic Livelihoods and Environmental Justice and Stewardship.	We support strategies that allow local, national, and international alliances that allow grassroots organizations around the world to better influence policy, secure	IDEX uses a "partnership model" through which we commit to building the organizational capacity of selected partner organizations with long-term, flexible grant support using	Sharing information and technical assistance and training, in-country in particular; Co-funding excellent groups; Sharing information about potential grantees; Providing recommendations and references for
Stanley	Wong	Manager of Grantmaking Staff	Levi Strauss Foundation	SWong@levi.com		Australia/New Zealand, Bangladesh, Cambodia, China, India, Indonesia, Japan, Malaysia, Pakistan, Singapore, S. Korea, Taiwan, Thailand, Vietnam	Worker rights in the garment/textile industry; HIV/AIDS policy and advocacy; asset building.	Human rights lens on the above issues	Strategic programmatic funding; general support.	In all the aforementioned issues.
Ellen	Ambags	Programme Associate for Asia and the Pacific	Mama Cash	e.ambags@mamacash.nl	0031 20 515 8706	Grants can be made in any country except Canada or the US. We do not focus on any specific countries in our	women's, girls' and trans rights	multiple	Core support, including programs, as well as supporting grantees with accompaniment. In viewing them as partners we try to accompany them in their expansion, growth and organisational development.	We are interested in collaborating with peer funders in the areas of women's, girls' and trans' rights quite broadly.
Khandarmaa	Zorig	External Relations and External Fundraising Programme Coordinator	Mongolian Women's Fund	handaa@mones.org.mn	976 11 317904	Asia	projects addressing violence against women, economic empowerment of women with multiple disadvantages, women's leadership especially women's political participation, and fostering women's movement through encouraging collaboration; collective participation and, experience and knowledge sharing.	grants to women's NGOs, women's groups and grassroots organizations.	project grants, capacity building or technical support.
Brian	Joseph	Senior Director, Asia and Global Programs	National Endowment for Democracy	brian@ned.org	202-378-9700	Asia	Democracy and human rights
Palkyi	Tenzin		National Endowment for Democracy	TenzinP@ned.org		Coordinates the Asia team.	Rule of law, NGO strengthening, human rights, freedom of information and association, civic education, conflict resolution, accountability, strengthening political institutions, youth	Human rights, women's rights, workers' rights, religious and ethnic minorities' rights, and civil and political rights.	Beyond its grant-making function, the NED's research arm, the International Forum for Democratic Studies, conducts research on democratic movements and transitions around	The NED is interested in sharing experiences, successes, and challenges with peer funders. Additionally, on a case by case basis, NED is interested in coordinating on specifics grants to ensure there
John	Khnaus	Senior Program Officer for Asia	National Endowment for Democracy	John@ned.org		Burma, Thailand, Malaysia, and North Korea.
Mona	Dave	Program Officer	National Endowment for Democracy	monad@ned.org		Nepal, Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, Maldives, and India
Louisa	Chiang	Program Officer, East Asia	National Endowment for Democracy	louisac@ned.org		China	Human rights, freedom of information, civil society strengthening, democratic ideas and values, accountability, civic education, rule of law, freedom of association, and conflict resolution	Civil and political rights; women's rights; property rights; minority rights.	Year-long grant	Strategy and experience sharing; potential grantee referrals; country and sectoral expertise development.
David	Angeles	Assistant Program Officer	National Endowment for Democracy	daivda@ned.org		Burma, Thailand, Malaysia, and North Korea.		Increasing Democratic Political Space, Human Rights Documentation, Ethnic Minority Rights, Freedom of Information, International Advocacy, and Women's Rights	One-year grants to CSOs and CBOs; grants are approved on a quarterly basis by the NED board.	general information sharing, logistical approaches to working in Burma, potential grantee referrals, and sharing any capacity building opportunities for grantees.
Indira	Jena	Executive Director	Niraya Indian Women's Fund	nimayahyd@gmail.com	91-40-27805089	India	Women and girls' rights with special focus on geographically remote, socially excluded and economically vulnerable communities	Livelihood skills, organizing, political participation, leadership building, campaigns, research	Project grants, some multi-year. Some sustainability grants	1. Violence Against Women. 2. Trafficking of Women and Girls. 3. Women's Political Participation.
Tim	Parritt	Programme Officer	Oak Foundation	tim.parritt@oakfnd.org		Burma/Thailand, India, Regional	Torture, detention/due process, impunity/accountability, human rights defenders, and AP regional project on Disappearances.	Multiple: advocacy.	Core and program support	We are open to collaboration in all areas.

Shirley	Ku	Senior Program Coordinator	Open Society Foundations	sku@sorosny.org	212-548-0151	China	Public interest law, public health (HIV/AIDS), disability rights, gay rights, support for civil society groups	Support for civil society groups
Jonathan	Hulland		Open Society Foundations	jhulland@sorosny.org		Nepal, Bhutan	Human rights, civil and political right, media, transitional justice, education, women's rights, caste discrimination, etc	Media, transitional justice, education, etc.	Grants, scholarships	Most Everything
Anisha	Chugh		South Asia Women's Fund	chugh.anisha@gmail.com		Nepal, Bangladesh, India, Pakistan, and Sri Lanka. The board has mandated Bhutan and the Maldives as well, and we will start funding in these countries as soon as funds are available.	For the Small Grants Programme, we support diverse issues (disability, sexuality, minority women's rights, etc.) related to promotion and protection of women's rights at local, national, and regional levels. For Thematic grants, we are currently focusing on Right to Safe and Secure Movement (India, Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, and Nepal.)	Grantmaking to women and women's groups to ensure women's rights in the region Fund-raising, to ensure that the women's movements in the region have sustainable access to resources to undertake their work and address their priorities Identifying the capacity requirements in the women's	1. Small Grants Programme: a) Project support for a period of 6months to a year (between 1500-5000USD) b) Workshop support 2. Thematic Grants for upto 2 years (10000 - 15000 USD per	Protection and Promotion of Women's Rights
Teresa	Weathington	Senior Grant Writer	The Global Fund for Children	weathington@globalfundforchildren.org	202-222-0826	Global	grantmaking to innovative grassroots organizations that provide opportunities for marginalized children to grow, learn, and thrive	grants and strengthening support to innovative grassroots organizations	operating support, program grants, value-added services to current grantee partners that include organizational development grants, opportunity grants, regional knowledge exchange workshops, emergency grants, and
Karen	Bennett	Dir of Intl Programs	The McConnell Foundation	karen@mcconnellfoundation.org	530.226.6223	Nepal, Lao PDR	Natural Resource Conflicts, Community Mediation, Women Journalists, Women's and Girls' Leadership Development & Support	multiple	core and program support; multi-year
Yolanda	Rodriguez	Program Manager	Trocaire	YRodriguez@trocairecam.org	+855 12 789 023	Timor Leste, Cambodia and Myanmar	Gender equality, HIV/Aids, governance and human rights, humanitarian and sustainable livelihoods	Advocacy, programme delivery, partner capacity, research	Project grants to, and non-funding partnerships with national civil society organisations	Note: As of August 2013 we depart Timor Leste and Cambodia
Keely	Tongate	Director of Programs	Urgent Action Fund for Women's Human Rights	sandra@urgentactionfund.org		Global, except Latin America and the Spanish speaking Caribbean and the African continent	Responses to armed conflict, escalating violence, or politically volatile environments; Potentially precedent-setting legal or legislative actions, or actions that aim to protect a precedent that	Women's Human Rights, LGBT Human Rights. Unable to provide funds for general operating support, development projects, or humanitarian aid.	Grants are made when a group can demonstrate that if it does not receive funds rapidly, the opportunity will pass and when strategic opportunities resulting from an event	Learning about networks and other organizations' contacts on the ground, developing referral systems, challenges and experiences in different contexts and countries, Monitoring and Evaluation efforts.
Mary Beth	Gallagher		William Hinman Foundation	gallagher@hinmanfoundation.org
Patricia	Cooper	Director	Women's Regional Network; Afghanistan, Pakistan, and India	Patricia.J.Cooper@gmail.com		South Asia; specifically Afghanistan, Pakistan, and India	Women's rights and reproductive health and rights	strengthening of democratic values to ensure women's political and economic participation is non-negotiable in the struggle towards accountability, peace and justice.		We need the support of the Funders Working Group to help identify sources of funds and leading women in India and Pakistan .
Sandhya	Gupta	Consultant (India-based)	Tony Blair Faith Foundation	Sgupta.tbff@gmail.com	9.1991E+11	India, Pakistan, Philippines	Primary and Secondary School Education; Inter-Faith Relations and Dialogue, Higher Education and Faith Literacy	Cross-Border Videoconferences; Capacity Building in Higher Education; Teacher Training; Research and Advocacy re: Religious Expression and Secularism vis-à-vis State structures	Networking opportunities and linkages, educational materials, support for international conferences, technical support and training, non-funding partnerships with universities, national governments and national civil society groups, research support	Note: TBFF is also working in Indonesia, Hong Kong, Singapore and China. We would be most interested to partner with groups looking at issues of religion and secularism in their programs, across all fields.