

Telebriefing:
EVALUATING SOCIAL CHANGE: A FUNDER-SOCIAL MOVEMENT DIALOGUE
November 17, 2011

Sponsored by IHRFG's Latin America Funders Working Group

Speakers:

- Liliane da Costa Reis, Consultant and author of "Evaluating Social Change: A Funder-Social Movement Dialogue"
- Monica Larenas, Program Officer - Latin America, Fund for Nonviolence

Description:

This funder telebriefing focused on evaluation tools and methodologies critical to understanding the social change process and in building strong working relationships between organizations of the global North and South.

In this telebriefing, funders explored the following questions:

- What information is relevant to your organization regarding social change?
- What are the differing perceptions of and approaches to evaluation?
- What types of evaluation methodologies provide indicators of social change?
- What important discussions should grantees and funders have regarding evaluation to strengthen relationships and advance efforts for social change?

Speakers also discussed the findings of "Evaluating Social Change: A Funder-Social Movement Dialogue." This report emerged from the funder-social movement working group created through the initiative of Forging Alliances South and North (ForAL).
