

Telebriefing:

PROMOTING HUMAN RIGHTS IN GAZA: THE ROLE OF HUMAN RIGHTS FUNDERS

December 6, 2012

Organized by the Euro-Mediterranean Foundation of Support to Human Rights Defenders and the Urgent Action Fund

Speakers:

- Mahmoud Abu-Rahma, International Relations Director, Al Mezan Center for Human Rights (Gaza)
- Asmaa Al Ghoul, Women's Rights Activist, Author, and Journalist (Gaza)

Description:

This telebriefing provided a discussion with advocates from Gaza and funders active in the region on how international funders might play a role in advancing human rights in this difficult context, in the immediate and long terms.

In this telebriefing, funders:

- Scanned the existing and current human rights situation in Gaza and the response of the international community
- Highlighted the human rights priorities identified by and the responses of local human rights activists
- Explored the role of, and effective strategies and entry points for, international human rights funders to address the human rights needs in Gaza in the immediate and long terms
